Book Synopsis:

Becca –a shy, lonely set decorator – and Jon – a confident, gorgeous, and famous actor: stranded together on location, in the middle of nowhere, for an entire weekend with no way to call for help. How can such a thing happen in the twenty-first century? But it does, giving both of them the chance to let someone special into their carefully guarded lives . . . to fall in love. As utterly different as they are, fate decides to take Becca and Jon down a path neither of them could have foreseen. If you loved Notting Hill, you're going to love Stranded With You, Book One of the Fate Chose Us series.
